

The Churchill School
#teamchurchill

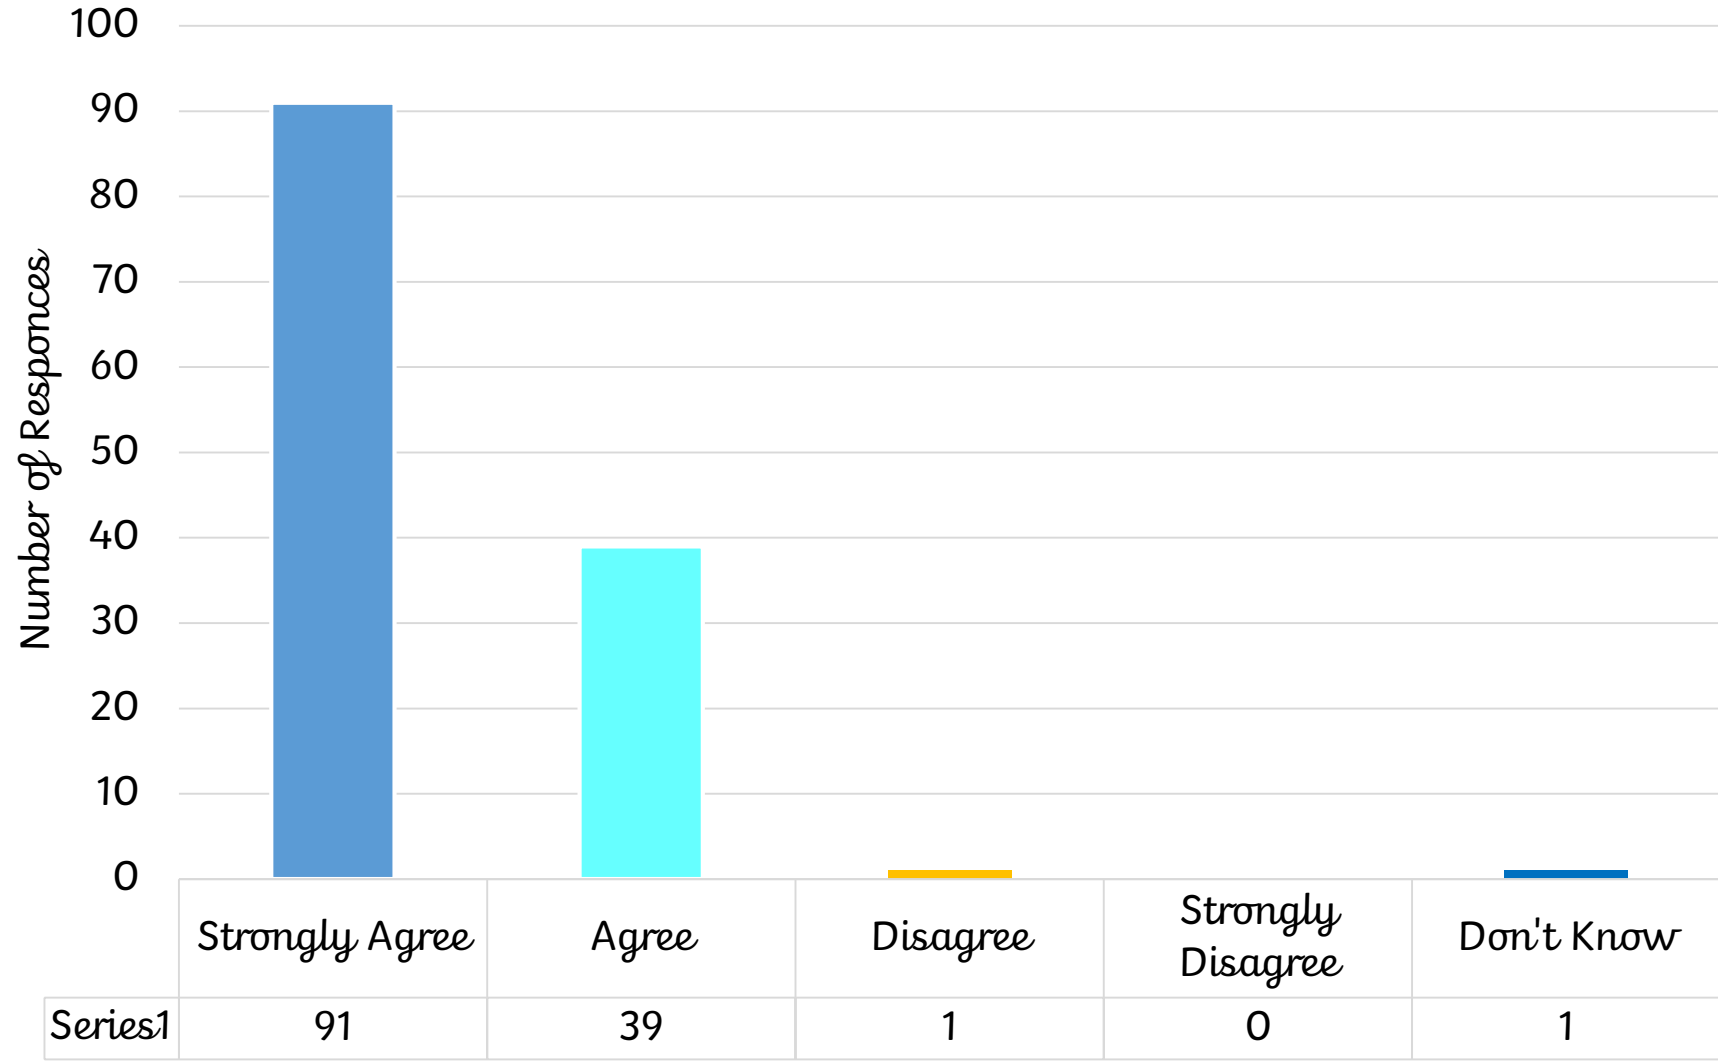

Parent Survey Data

November 2022

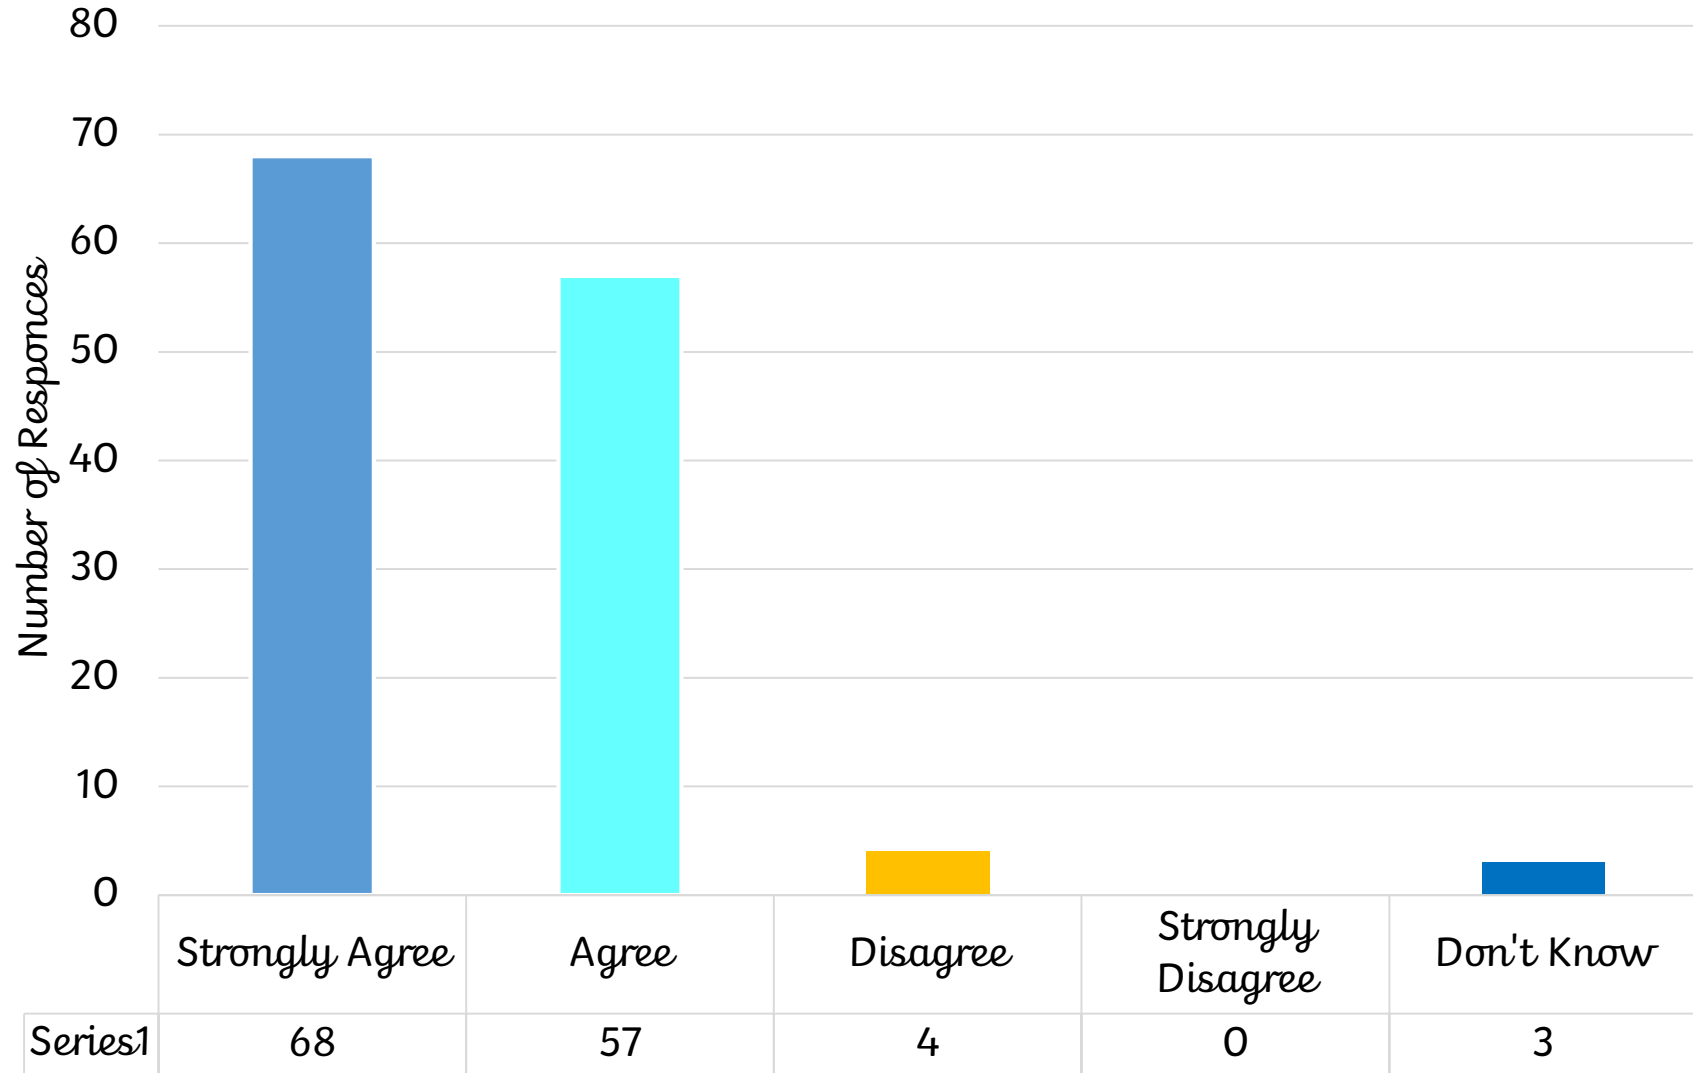

My child is happy at school.

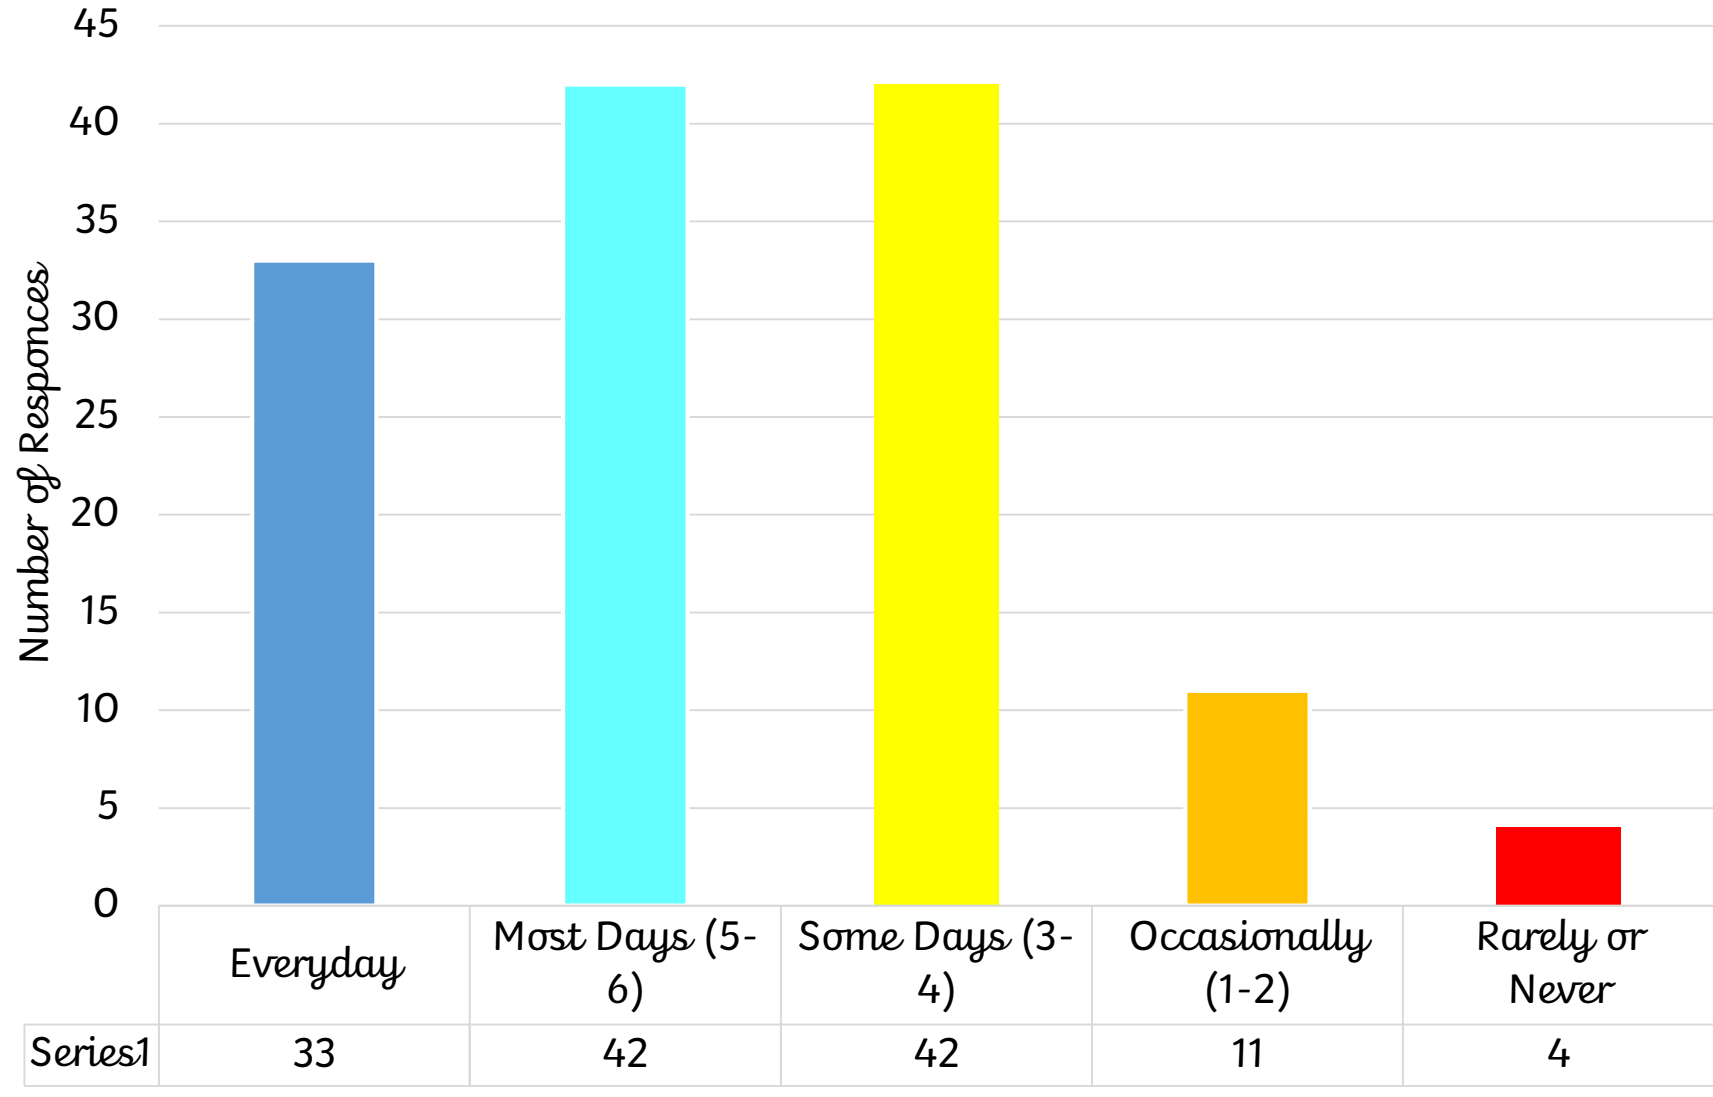

My child feels safe at school.

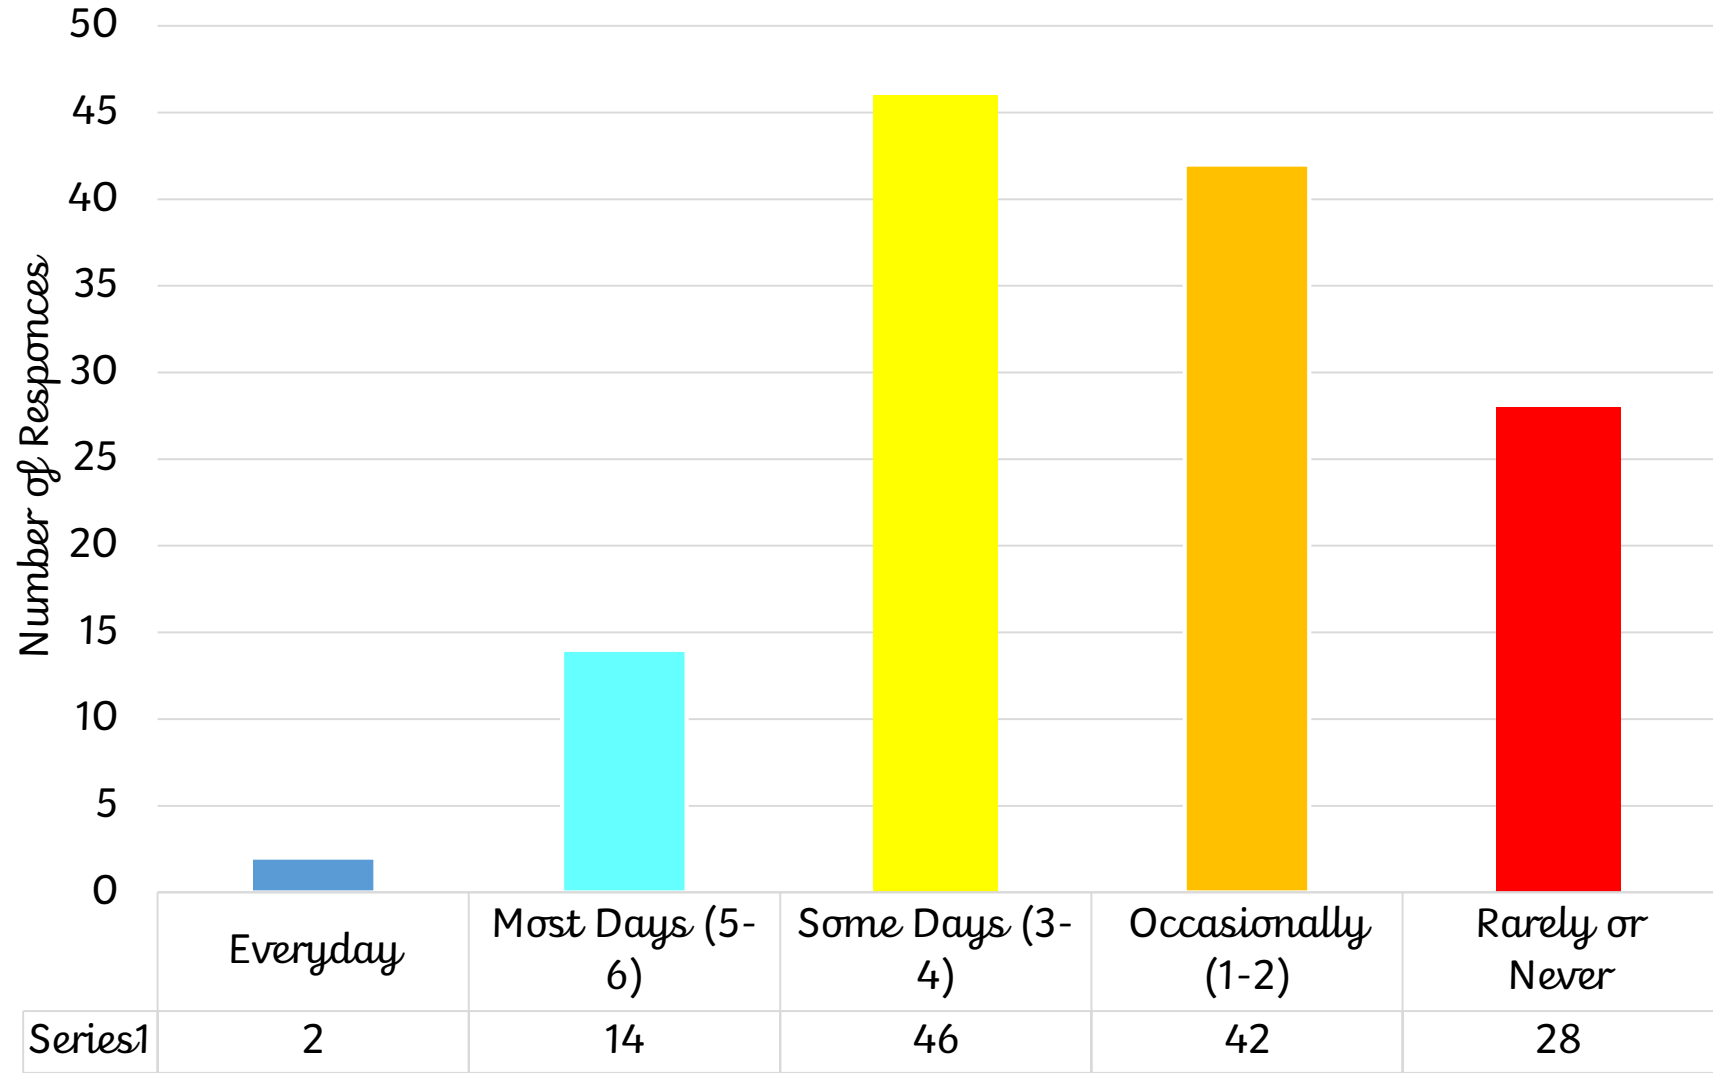

My child enjoys their current topic.

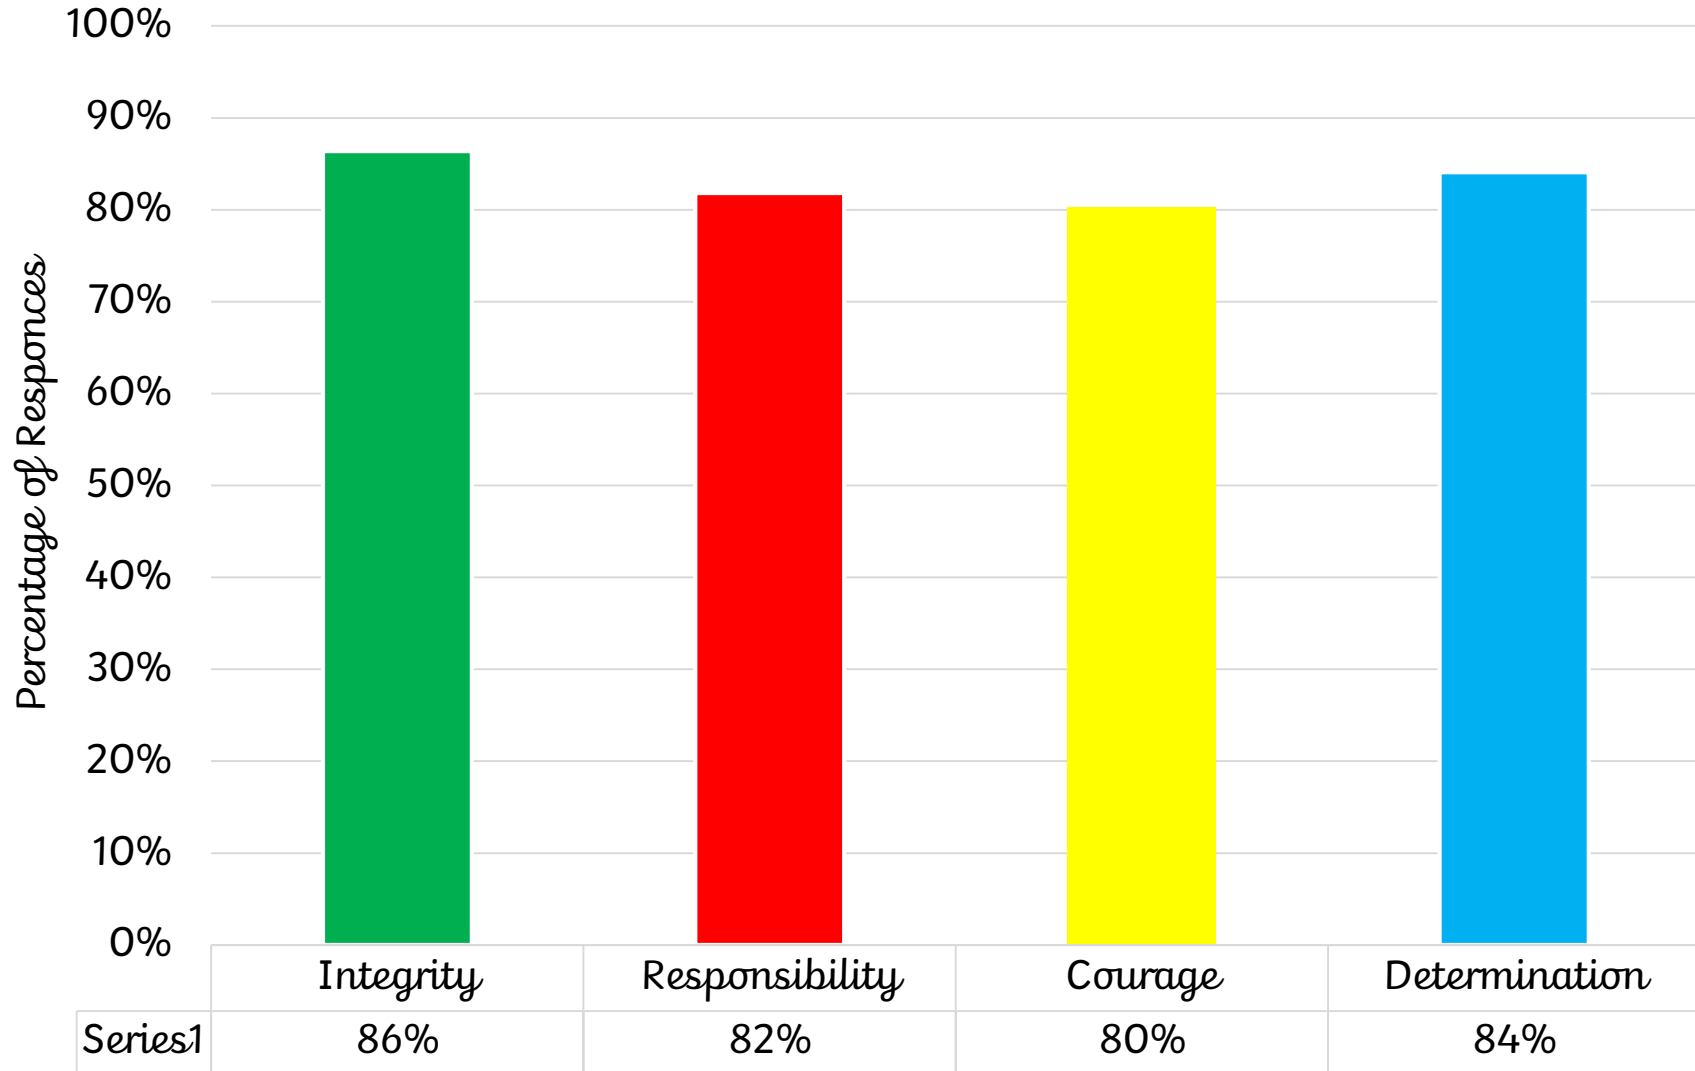

I read with my child at home.

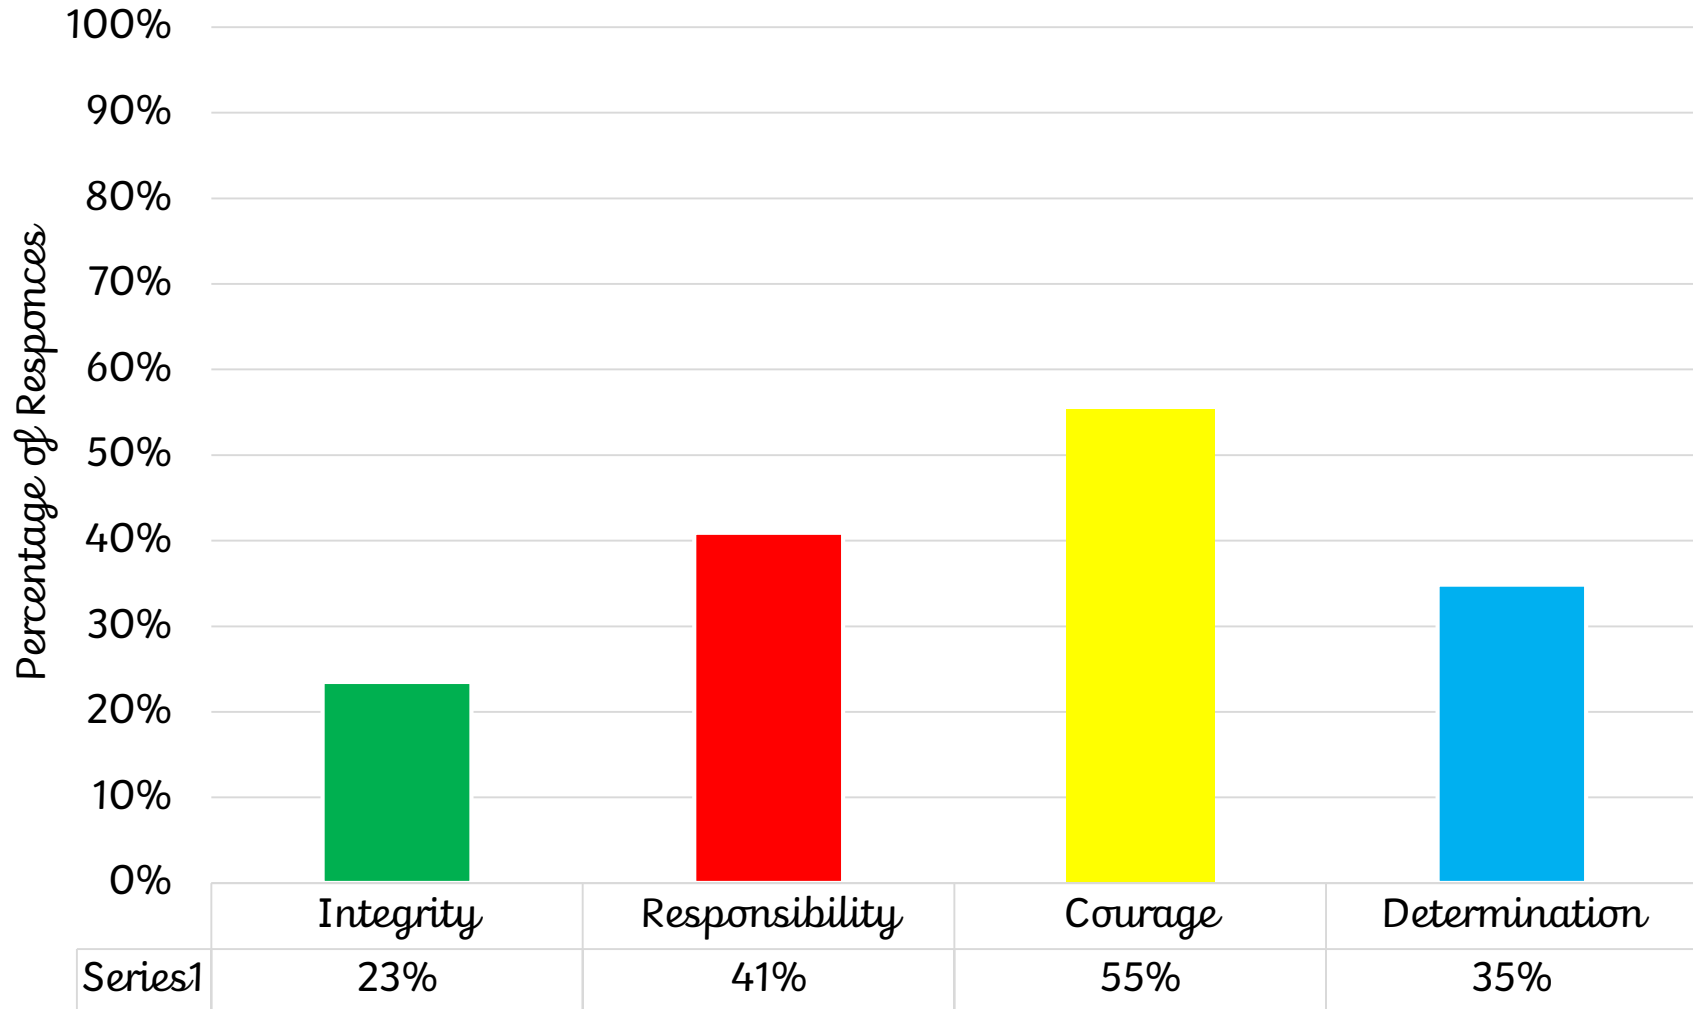

I practice times tables with my child at home.

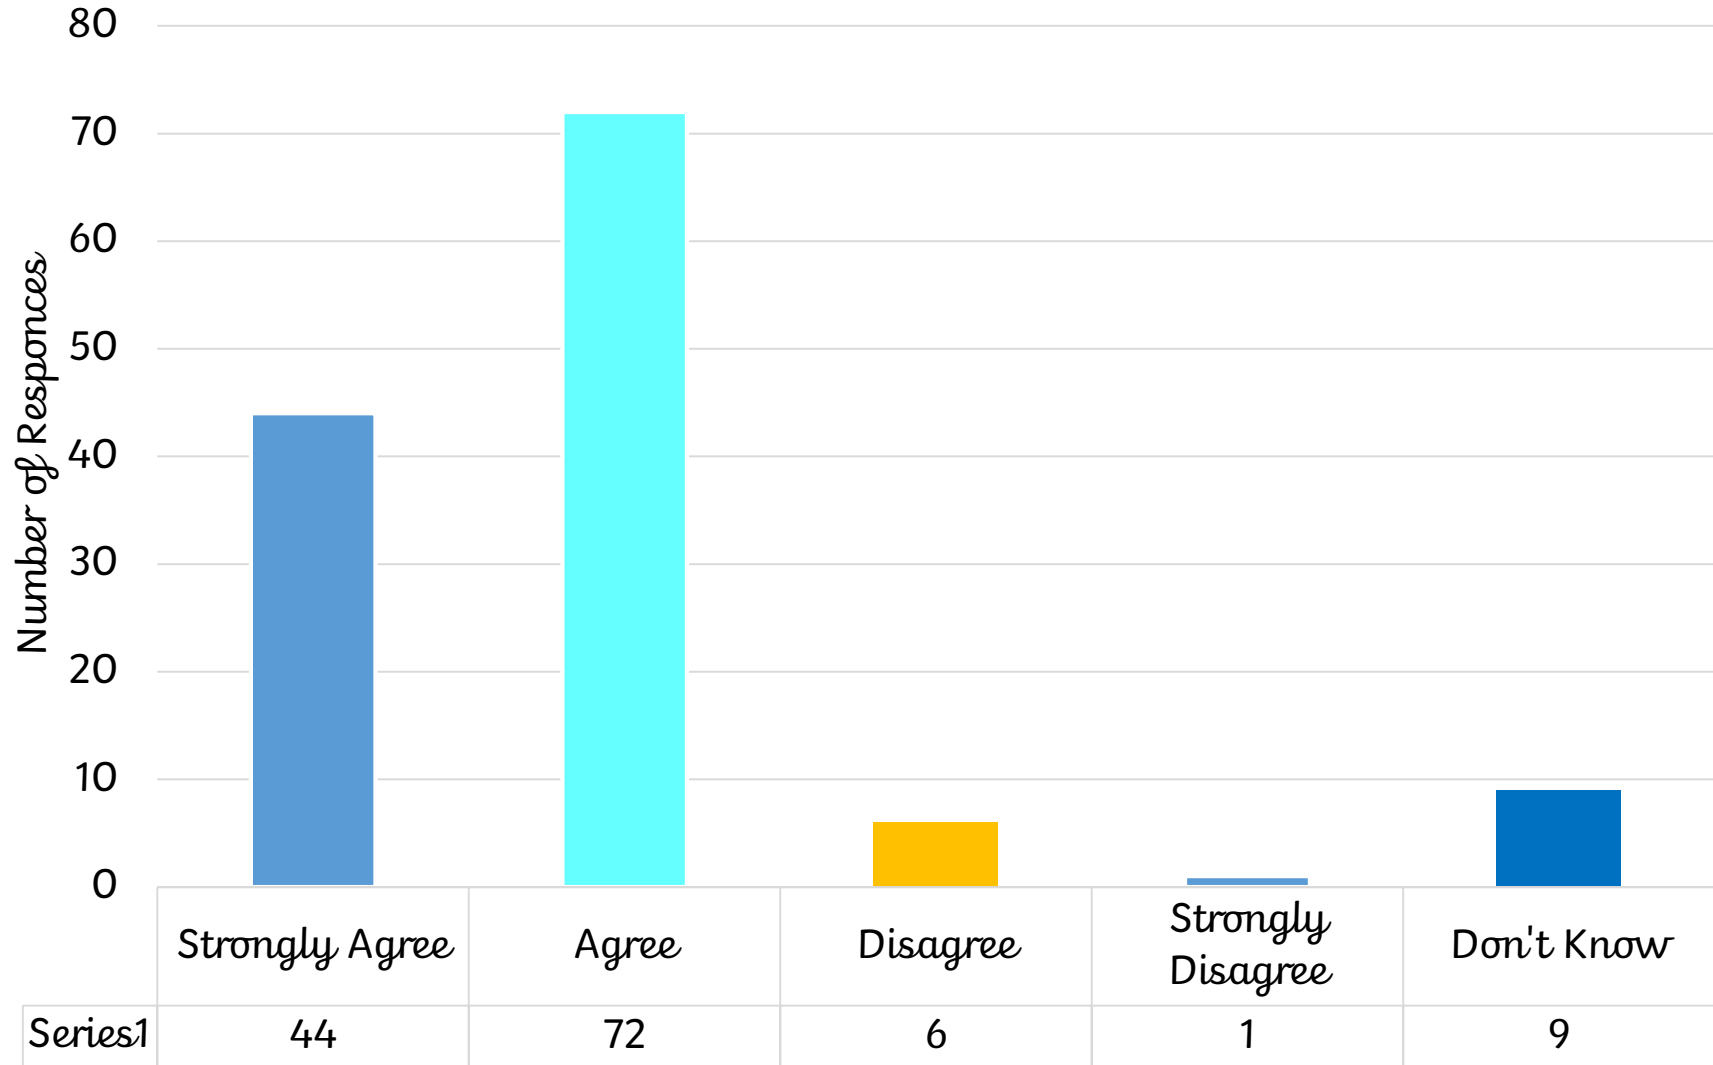

My child displays the following school values.

I would like my child to improve on the following school values.

Communication with my child's teacher is good.

The school app is a good tool for home school communication.

